Lathrop's New Police Chief

Lathrop, CA, [1/20/10] – The City of Lathrop announces Eric Holman as Lathrop's new Police Chief.

The City of Lathrop contracts for police services with the San Joaquin County Sherriff's Office where Captain Eric Holman is a 28-year veteran. On Tuesday, January 19, Captain Eric Holman was presented with a Chief's badge and was officially assigned to serve as Lathrop's Police Chief.

Chief Eric Holman began his career as a cadet in Law Enforcement in 1981 and has worked in all divisions within the Sherriff's office. He has received numerous promotions throughout his career with the Sherriff's Office and in September 2009 he was promoted to Captain.

Chief Eric Holman is a lifelong resident of San Joaquin County and is a member of Mayfair Seventh Adventist Church in Stockton. His hobbies include playing chess, traveling and lifting weights. He has been recognized as one of the "Strongest Cops in California". Lastly, Chief Holman is the proud father of two daughters and he even has one granddaughter.

Lathrop is pleased to welcome Captain Eric Holman as their new Police Chief.
