Addressing the Parks and Recreation Commission

Any person may speak once on any item under discussion by the Youth Advisory Commission after receiving recognition by the Chair. Blue speaker cards will be available prior to and during the meeting. To address the Youth Advisory Commission, a card must be submitted to the Youth Advisory Commission Secretary indicating name, address and number of the item upon which a person wishes to speak. When addressing the Youth Advisory Commission, please walk to the lectern located in front of the Youth Advisory Commission. State your name and address. In order to ensure all persons have the opportunity to speak, a time limit will be set by the Chair for each speaker (see instructions on speaker form). In the interest of time, each speaker may only speak once on each individual agenda item; please limit your comments to new material; do not repeat what a prior speaker has said.

Citizen's Forum

Any person desiring to speak on a matter, which is not scheduled on this agenda, may do so under the Public Comment section. Please submit your blue speaker card to the Youth Advisory Commission Secretary prior to the commencement of Public Comment, or submit your request to speak via the "raise hand" feature in ZoomGov. Only those who have submitted speaker cards, or have expressed an interest to speak, prior to the conclusion of Public Comment will be called upon to speak. Please be aware the California Government Code prohibits the Parks and Recreation Commission from taking any immediate action on an item, which does not appear on the agenda, unless the item meets stringent statutory requirements. The Chair will limit the length of your presentation (see instructions on speaker form) and each speaker may only speak once on this agenda item.

Information

If you wish to appeal a decision of the Youth Advisory Commission, you must do so within ten (10) calendar days following the meeting. Please contact the Youth Advisory Commission at (209) 941-7370 for information regarding the appeal procedure.

NOTE: If you challenge the nature of a proposed action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the Youth Advisory Commission at, or prior to, the public hearing.
